There is talk in some quarters that overseas mail may be rationed, despite the many pleas from all sides to folks on the home front to write often to the men and women in service. At the present approximately 34,000,000 letters a week are being carried to men and women overseas. This requires precious cargo space for this bulk of mail. Very often there has had to be a choice between sending bags of mail or plasma. It is unfair to force this choice on the United States Postal Service.

The solution to this important problem is an easy one ... V-MAIL.

One regular letter requires as and thus avoid what probably may result in the rationing of overseas mail. V-MAIL requires less space and travels faster and the addi-

We have passed the half-way mark in our Red Cross drive for $26,500 . . . but we have scarcely a week to go to reach our quota. Many of our good citizens have been generous in their donations this year . . . many have not. But there is a far greater number who have not as yet made their contributions.

No other organization in the world can even begin to match what the Red Cross is doing for our men and women in service, in this country, in foreign camps, on the battlefronts and in the Prisoners of War camps. What you give will make possible the continuation of this' humanitarian service. To those who can but give a little . . . give what you can . . . every penny counts. But to those more fortunate ones . . . those with more than moderate means ... give to the fullest extent of your means. Miss Gladys Kelly, Wilmington.

Appreciation Speaking in behalf of the members of the price panel of the local War Price and Rationing Board, A. J. Carbaugh, the price panel chairman, expressed their appreciation to food merchants and restaurant proprietors in this board area for their "willing cooperation" in the price control program. "Your War Price and Rationing Board is proud of the record you have made in the recent surveys in the community," Mr. Carbaugh said.

By WILLIAM S. WHITE

London, March 23 (AP)—Maneuvering swiftly to caulk his Balkan dike against the Russian flood, Hitler appeared today to be about to kidnap the Rumanian government as he already has abducted that of Hungary.

There were widespread reports that Premier Ion Antonescu of Rumania has been summoned to Hitler's presence as Admiral Nicholas Horthy, regent of Hungary, had gone before him. There was speculation that Antonescu was likely to be kicked out because of German suspicions that he was involved in peace overtures toward the Soviet.

British Issue Warning

The British radio at once began broadcasting this warning to the Rumanians:

"Rumanian leaders have been called to Hitler's headquarters. If you oppose Germany, Germany will wreak vengeance on you, but if you oppose the Allies an even graver fate is in store. x x x German transport is exposed and runs through Rumania. Concerted evidence of the desire to help the Allies now would be the first step toward Rumania's survival."

Germany's occupation of Rumania would be largely academic except as a measure for complete political control, for the country already is little more than a German camp area.

A German Foreign Office spokesman, according to a Berlin broadcast, "emphatically denied" that Horthy was being held prisoner, that Premier Nicholas Kallay had escaped to southern Hungary and had sent out an appeal for help from abroad, and that Yugoslav Marshal Tito had established contact with Hungarian forces.

county sealer of weights and measares, as assessor of Tyrone township, was accepted by the commissioners. The resignation was caused by Mr. Wright's appointment to his new post. Two assessors in Cumberland and Tyrone townships, and the tax colector in Berwick township have yet to be appointed by the commissioners to fill out the ranks of the township officials.

The commissioners, acting as the county election board certified copies of the ballots for the forthcoming primary election and named the troops, estimated at 300,000 against Times and News Publishing company to print them. It was announced Saturday is the

Mrs. Martin had arranged to present Mrs. Bream with her citation as a "surprise" feature of the luncheon-meeting held at the Hotel Gettysburg last Monday afternoon. There is talk in some quarters that overseas mail may be rationed, despite the many pleas from all sides to folks on the home front to write often to the men and women in service.

At the present approximately 34,000,000 letters a week are being carried to men and women overseas. This requires precious cargo space for this bulk of mail. Very often there has had to be a choice between sending bags of mail or plasma. It is unfair to force this choice on the United States Postal Service.

The solution to this important problem is an easy one . V-MAIL.

London, March 23 (AP)-Maneuvering swiftly to caulk his Balkan dike against the Russian flood, Hitler appeared today to be about to kidnap the Rumanian government as he already has abducted that of Hungary.

There were widespread reports that Premier Ion Antonescu of Rumania has been summoned to Hitler's presence as Admiral Nicholas Horthy, regent of Hungary, had gone before him. There was speculation that Antonescu was likely to be kicked out because of German suspicions that he was involved in peace overtures toward the Soviet.

British Issue Warning

The British radio at once began broadcasting this warning to the Rumanians:

"Rumanian leaders have been called to Hitler's headquarters. If you oppose Germany, Germany will wreak vengeance on you, but if you oppose the Allies an even graver fate is in store. x x x German transport is exposed and runs through Rumania. Concerted evidence of the desire to help the Allies now would be the first step toward Rumania's survival."

Germany's occupation of Rumania would be largely academic except as a measure for complete political control, for the country already is little more than a German camp area.

A German Foreign Office spokesman, according to a Berlin broadcast, "emphatically denied" that Horthy was being held prisoner, that Premier Nicholas Kallay had escaped to southern Hungary and had sent out an appeal for help from abroad, and that Yugoslav Marshal Tito had established contact with Hungarian forces.

Associated Press War Analyst British Prime Minister Churchill is used to world-wide audiences, but keen attention will be paid his statement in parliament that there will be renewed consultation between the principal Allies on the application of the Atlantic charter.

Need of clarification of this historic Allied pledge to mankind long has been apparent. If proof of that were necessary we should find it in the adroit manner in which Mr. Churchill sidestepped any commitment regarding specific application of the document.

However, we don't need further proof than we've long had in the the big issue.

No Pact With Foes I've already reported in this col-

Churchill declined to be more specific than to say that "the Atlantic charter stands as a declaration of the spirit and purpose in which its signatories are waging this war-not without success-and that it implies no pact or bargain with our enemies." He left it to those new consultations among the "principal" allies to deal with this pressing problem which is as full of explosive as a block-buster.

The further the war has progressed the more evident it has become that there will have to be some "adaptation" of the declaration of self-determination in certain cases. This means heart-burnings for some nations.

Charter Attacked

Only last week there was an attack on the Atlantic charter in the House of Commons on the ground that "where it is not platitudinous" Allied cause." A motion supported by seventy members to debate the charter was turned down by Premier Churchill unless the hostile members wished to make it the subject of a "vote of censure" of the government-which they did not.

An illuminating exposition of one strong trend of thought about the charter in Britain was given by the London Times in an editorial last Monday. It should be noted that this great paper often has been inspired in its utterances although it isn't the official mouthpiece of the gov-

This is a hard, irrefutable fact. To attempt to override it on the grounds of any general theory of self-determination would be an act not of high political principle but of political madness."

We are as I see it on the verge sometimes harsh realities. What Russia—have to iron out is whether there's any clash between idealism and these stern realities. While one can foresee headaches and heartaches, nothing has arisen thus far to challenge the broad general principles of the original declarations. However, nothing has happened

News Briefs

Harrisburg, March 23 (AP)-Authentic sources disclosed today that a special session of the Legislature probably will be called for May 1 to facilitate voting by Pennsylvanians in the armed forces. Washington, March 23 (AP)-The House Foreign Affairs committee voted today to give Congress, rather than the President, the final say-so in the settlement of Lend-Lease contracts.

Washington, March 23 (AP)-Proclaiming April 6 as Army Day, to honor the nation's soldiers who have been "welded by the fire of battle into a mighty army of liberation," President Roosevelt in a proclamation today asked the nation's civilians to "reconsecrate" themselves to producing the arms and equipment needed to sustain the Army until final Victory."

New Delhi, March 23 (AP)-Japanese columns invading India now threaten Imphal, key road center in Manipur, from the south and east, it was disclosed today when Allied headquarters told of an enemy force which has driven more than 80 miles up the lower Manipur river valley from Tiddim in the Chin hills area. New Administration Needed Says Willkie

Sheboygan, Wis., March 23 (AP)-A change is needed in the national administration, says Wendell L. Willkie, and one of the reasons, he believes, is that the "present administration has been in power too long, far too long to bode well for the welfare of the American people." Addressing a rally last night as he continued his Wisconsin campaign in behalf of delegates pledged to him in the state primary April 4. Willkie asserted:

"Men in power so long become corrupted by the power itself. The administration is tired and cynical and disregardful of the welfare of the people."

An Evening Thought

Crimes lead one into another; they who are capable of being forgers are capable of being incendiaries.—Burke.

Just Folks

THE GRANDPA BUSINESS It's the business of a grandpa, if he really knows his trade, Of the bossy ways of women to be wholly unafraid. He must offer joys forbidden, such as cones and lemon pop, And be very, very liberal at the nearest candy shop. He must close his ears to scolding and when grandma questions why Little Ellen wants no supper, he must merely wink his eye.

It's the business of a grandpa to do-many things unwise; To forget all rules of diet when i comes to cake and pies.

He must get the jar of cookies when it's on too high a shelf For that hungry little fellow to get to it by himself.

And when mother starts complaining of such folly, day by day, And insists he'll spoil the youngster, he must up and walk away.

If you hope to be a grandpa who is worthy of the name.

Hear the way we fellows do it who have-learned to play the game. Always listen to the women when they're telling what is what, What is good for little children and what certainly is not;

-do exactly as you please.

PROGRAMS

New York, March 23 (AP)-From the speed with which it has been adding such programs lately, the Blu soon will be the network of quizes. When all scheduled get on the air, the total will be eight.

For some time the network has been going along with only the Quiz Kids on Sunday evenings and Ed East's Ladies Be Seated, five times a week Mondays through Fridays. It started adding last Saturday by putting on Money Go Round, buildup idea. This week it continued the pace with the new Tuesday night Milton Berle Let Yourself Go, based somewhat on the game of Forfeits, and with tonight's new Joe E. Brown Geography Quiz, Stop or Go 21 Three more are to come. On Sun-lay night, April 2, Listen, the Women, will have its premiere. A combined quiz and forum, five women guests will form a board to answer all sorts of questions of interest primarily to feminine listeners. Next to start is Finders Keepers, musical quiz conducted by Ted Cott, veteran of such programs, set for April 6. Last on the list is a trans-Atlantic quiz, for Saturday Afternoons from April 15, in which Americans in Great Britain will be questioned from London and Britsh nationals in this country queried from New York. The M. C. Alistair Cook, will be in London. 11:00-News 11:15-R. Harkness

Political Eyes Focused On Primaries In Maine And Louisiana Friday

SELECTION OF DELEGATES IS PRIME FACTOR

Washington, March 23 (AP)-Maine and Louisiana lead off tomorrow in a seven-state series of political conventions and primaries that will name 217 Republican and 142 Democratic delegates for the national conventions by April 1.

In the busiest period of a dawning presidential campaign, Republicans will choose 13 delegates in Louisiana tomorrow, 14 in Minnesota Saturday (following by 7 more on April 1), 85 in New York on March 28 (with 8 to be chosen later), and in Iowa and 19 in Kansas both on March 31.

The Democrats will select 10 in Maine tomorrow, 10 in Arizona Saturday and 90 in New York on March 28 (with six to be chosen later). GOP Selects 63

Thus far the Republicans have selected only 63 delegates, too few to give a reliable indication of a trend toward any presidential can-

Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York, who says he is not a candidate but who came to the defense of constitutional government in a letter made public here yesterday, apparently has collected the most support, with the bulk of North Carolina's 25 votes and a majority of New Mexico's eight claimed for him, as well as two definitely pledged of New Hampshire's 11. Supporters of Wendell L. Willkie claim six in New Hampshire. Florida's 15 were uninstructed. Dewey, who wrote the Columbia Historical society that he was unable to accept any speaking engagements outside of New York "at this time." appears likely also to get the lion's share of support from the 158 Republican delegates to be chosen in the next eight days, since most of the 85 from New York can be counted in his camp.

In his letter to Wade H. Cooper, of the Historical society's board of managers, the New York governor observed that it "has become one of the prime responsibilities of every American" to preserve the constitution. The society had invited him to speak on constitutional government at its 50th anniversary dinner here April 12.

Stassen Delegates Minnesota's district party conventions probably will produce the first delegates formally pledged to Lieut. Commander Harold E. Stassen, former governor of that state.

Iowa and Kansas state conventions are expected to select unpledged delegations with former Gov. Alf Landon heading the Kansas group. Landon recently let it become known he favors Dewey.

The Democratic side of the picture is much cleaner, dominated by a party movement to draft President Roosevelt for a fourth term, with apparently no dissenters to this move among the 90 New York delegates to be chosen.

Harrisburg, March 23 (AP)-Curent uncertainty of farmers over assigned to the 304th Training their Selective Service status or that of their sons and hired men was seen today as having in adverse effect on plans for meeting the War Food administration's crop goals for 1944 in Pennsylvania.

State Chairman Clyde A. Zehner of the Agricultural Adjustment agency declared, "It is my guess that if we fall short on some of our goals, the uncertainty of farmers over the draft at the time when they are making their crop plans will be largely responsible."

"I had one farmer tell me," Zehner said in an interview, "that he would plant an extra 15 acres of corn if he knew he was going to have the help."

Political Eyes Focused On Primaries In Maine And Louisiana Friday

SELECTION OF DELEGATES IS PRIME FACTOR

Washington, March 23 (AP)-Maine and Louisiana lead off tomorrow in a seven-state series of political conventions and primaries that will name 217 Republican and 142 Democratic delegates for the national conventions by April 1.

In the busiest period of a dawning presidential campaign, Republicans will choose 13 delegates in Louisiana tomorrow, 14 in Minnesota Saturday (following by 7 more on April 1), 85 in New York on March 28 (with 8 to be chosen later), and in Iowa and 19 in Kansas both on March 31.

The Democrats will select 10 in Maine tomorrow, 10 in Arizona Saturday and 90 in New York on March 28 (with six to be chosen later). GOP Selects 63

Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York, who says he is not a candidate but who came to the defense of constitutional government in a letter made public here yesterday, apparently has collected the most support, with the bulk of North Carolina's 25 votes and a majority of New Mexico's eight claimed for him, as well as two definitely pledged of New Hampshire's 11. Supporters of Wendell L. Willkie claim six in New Hampshire. Florida's 15 were uninstructed.

Dewey, who wrote the Columbia Historical society that he was unable to accept any speaking engagements outside of New York "at this time," appears likely also to get the lion's share of support from the 158 Republican delegates to be chosen in the next eight days, since most of the 85 from New York can be count-

Washington, March 23 (AP)-War Food Administrator Marvin Jones told the Senate Banking committee that a policy of setting ceilings on farm wages in some areas may have to be extended this year "in the interest of production."

Appearing in behalf of legislation to continue the stabilization act another year, Jones, also said the government support prices for farm products "are an integral part of the war food production and have played their part in inducing" an output m 1943 which was 32 per cent greater than the five-year pre-war average.

Extension Of Farm Wage Ceilings Seen

Washington, March 23 (AP)-War Food Administrator Marvin Jones told the Senate Banking committee that a policy of setting ceilings on farm wages in some areas may have to be extended this year "in the interest of production."

Appearing in behalf of legislation to continue the stabilization act another year, Jones, also said the government support prices for farm products "are an integral part of the war food production and have played their part in inducing" an output in 1943 which was 32 per cent greater than the five-year pre-war average.

For the war still goes on with ever mounting fury. And that means that our War Bond buying must go on unabated, too.

To the millions who bought extra War Bonds in this drive, all America gives thanks.

To the 5,000,000 and more volunteer workers who contributed their time and abilities to help make the drive a success, your Government and your fighting men give thanks.

To the thousands of patriotic newspapers, magazines, radio stations and networks, members of the motion picture industry, the outdoor industry, advertisers and agencies, retail stores, banks, post offices, credit unions, building and loan associations, labor unions, fraternal organizations and farm credit associations, the Nation gives thanks.

Once again Americans have proved their determination to "back the attack" to the full.

But the attack goes on

Look at Italy. When the 4th War Loan drive ended at midnight February 15, the drive on Rome was still going on. American boys were still crouching in water-filled foxholes—clinging with bitter and bloody tenacity to a Look at Japan. At the same hour that saw the end of the 4th War Loan, the "March of Death" that shocked all America to a realization of Jap brutality to American prisoners of war—that march was still going on.

And we on the home front

—can we afford to stop now that the 4th War Loan is history, while our all-important job of supplying and financing this costliest war of all time still goes on? We have won a home front battle here, yes.

But just as our boys continue even more vigorously once they have established a beachhead, so we must continue to build on the success we have already achieved.

Our job goes on

The Bonds we bought last week and the week before are today's exploding bombs and shells, and spent bullets can never be used again. We must provide for tomorrow, too. The need for new guns, planes, ships and tanks still goes on.

For the war still goes on with ever mounting fury. So while all or those on the home front who have bought Bonds and have worked so hard to make the 4th War Loan drive a success have earned the Nation's thanks, none of us can afford to forget that our home front job, including Bond buying, also still goes on!

Assistant District Attorney Jacob Grumet began sketching the death scene yesterday, with introduction of broken candlesticks as the death weapon, police photographs of the blood-stained master bedroom and a medical examiner's testimony of wounds of the body.

Lonergan clenched his teeth as the prosecutor accused him of breaking a heavy brass candle holder on his wife's head, then walking across the room for another holder to club her again before strangling her with both hands.

The examiner admitted the autopsy showed a "moderate amount" of alcohol in Mrs. Lonergan's brain, but he said it wasn't sufficient to indicate intoxication.,

CALL TWO WHO FOUND BODY IN LONERGAN CASE

By JAMES H. PORTERFIELD New York, March 23 (AP) - The

two persons who discovered Patricia Lonergan's battered body - her mother and a Marine Corps captain-were called by the state today to complete a grisly picture of death in the apartment where the 23year-old heiress was bludgeoned and strangled last October 24.

The prosecution said the mother. Mrs. William Burton, widow of the late millionaire artist, and Captain Peter Elser, former Harvard football star, would be "identification witnesses" at the murder trial of Mrs. Lonergan's estranged husband, Wayne, 26-year-old Canadian air-

On the day the state charges that Lonergan attacked his wife, "determined to kill." Elser and Mrs. Burton found the heiress' nude body sprawled on a blood-soaked bed after the officer had telephoned about a dinner engagement.

Sketches Death Scene

Assistant District Attorney Jacob Grumet began sketching the death scene yesterday, with introduction of broken candlesticks as the death weapon, police photographs of the blood-stained master bedroom and a medical examiner's testimony of wounds of the body.

Lonergan clenched his teeth as the prosecutor accused him of breaking a heavy brass candle holder on his wife's head, then walking across the room for another holder, to club her again before strangling her with both hands

Judge James Garrett Wallace refused to permit the examiner to answer a question by Broderick as to whether the fracture might have been caused by "a whiskey bottle thrown in a night club." Rephrasing the question, the jurist himself asked whether a bottle might have caused the fracture. Doctor Helpern said he didn't think so.

The examiner admitted the autopsy showed a "moderate amount" of alcohol in Mrs. Lonergan's brain, but he said it wasn't sufficient to indicate intoxication.

Only a few hours before she was slain, the heiress had been squired on a round of night spots by a friend, Mario Gabelline, 43-year-old Rome-born interior decorator. He is expected to be a major witness.

NEWS TO HIM

Troy, N. Y. (AP)-A 44-year-old man told the FBI he never had heard of selective service. In fact, he said, he didn't know the First World war had ended. His home is atop Berlin mountain in a rugged section of Rensselaer county.

PENNIES FOR HEAVEN

Dover Plains, N. Y. (AP)-Members of a local church kept dropping the new steel pennies into the collection plate, mistaking them for dimes.

A member of the congregation suggested placing a special newpenny jar in the vestibule.

Parishioners responded. The jar now is almost full. And collections are back to normal.

Pacific, March 23 (AP)-Leap-frog landings in the Bismarck archipelago and the steady attrition of Japan's merchant fleet, vital to the supply of her scattered, diluted Pacific garrisons, are underscoring Gen. Douglas MacArthur's "cut them off and let them starve" strategy of how to fight Japan.

Since Jan. 1, 227 Japanese cargo ships have been sunk in the central and southwest Pacific, aside from nearly 600 barges, many loaded with troops and supplies. These ships were links in lifelines to wide-flung defense outposts.

Under MacArthur's strategy of bypassing certain enemy strongpoints to cut off their supply lines, uncounted thousands of Nipponese troops are left starving or facing starvation in the Solomons, on New Britain and New Ireland.

Pound Sea Lanes

Particularly off the northwest coast of New Guinea have Japan's scalanes come increasingly under Allied bombsights. Last week-end an entire five-ship enemy convoy was sunk between Hollandia and Wewak, and General MacArthur announced today that Allied bombers sank a Japanese destroyer and two small merchantmen in that same géneral area.

The latest Bismarck archipelago landings in the St. Matthias islands. hand today as Marines from Soloopposition found on Emirau island and neighboring Elomusao. This completed a circle of Allied holdings around the Bismarck sea, trapping Nipponese troops at Rabaul and Kavieng!

Plane Sinks Destroyer

The latest enemy destroyer sunk was spotted by a Liberator 22 miles east of Tadji in the Aitape area of New Guinea Monday night. A 1,000pound bomb badly crippled the ship, and the next morning the Liberator finished it off with 2,000 pounds of explosives.

In the painfully slow ground campaign on New Guinea, an Australian patrol following the Kabenau river made contact with an American force moving up the shoreline from Saidor. They joined in a drive on Bogadjim, main defense outpost for Japan's big base of Madang. This combined force, which reported small skirmishes with the enemy, is now about seven miles south of Bogađjim.
